Democratic County Ticket.

FOR CIRCUIT COURT CLERK,
CLARENCE HARDWICK.

FOR SHERIFF,
ALEXANDER C. ELLIS.

THE Republican National Convention meets in Chicago to-day.

NEVADA Democrats instructed for Tilden by a vote of 38 to 36.

MISSISSIPPI follows suit and leaves her Democratic delegates to the National convention at Cincinnati unimpaired.

WOOL was quoted in Louisville yesterday as follows: Unwashed, 31 1/2; dirty, 20 1/2; tub-washed, 43 1/2 and 44.

THE Carlisle whisky bill has passed, and it is claimed will reduce the revenue from that source $2,000,000 per annum.

BALLARD county Democrats have held their convention and selected delegates to go to Lexington instructed for Tilden.

WE have arranged for telegrams from Chicago each evening, commencing with to-day, until the agency is over. Come and see us and get the news.

OUR fellow-citizen, E. C. Hubbard, delegate from this district to the Chicago convention, made a rousing anti-Grant speech at the Blaine meeting Monday night.

COME to the Democratic mass meeting at the court-house in Hartford next Saturday, June 5th. It is the day to select delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Lexington June 17th.

Hereafter the Farmers' Home Journal, Louisville, Ky., will be published on Saturday, and will contain all the latest news up to going to press Friday night. It will, under this change, be more newsy than ever.

THE Hart County Democrat has been moved from Manfordsville to Horse Cave, the citizens at the latter place offering a more liberal support than the proprietor had been receiving at the former place.

DEMOCRATS, do your whole duty by coming out to the mass convention next Saturday. It will be held at the court-house. Come and throw in your unit toward making the next President of the United States.

THE Sinking Fund Committee have elected T. J. South, son of the late J. W. South, as deputy warden of the penitentiary, and Capt. L. D. Holloway, one of the clerks in the auditor's office, was made clerk. Warden Stone has been qualified as warden.

THE Methodist Episcopal Church at its recent general conference held in Cincinnati, refused the colored brethren a colored Bishop. The colored members in attendance were also refused homes with the whites, and had to stop at negro boarding-houses.

THE Missouri Democratic Convention sent their delegates to Cincinnati unimpaired. The Tilden men claim that a majority are for him. They expressed a preference in the resolutions for the old ticket, and the State can be safely counted that way.

THE Kentucky Press Association will hold its next annual meeting in Ashland, beginning next Wednesday. Quite an attractive programme has been laid out for those attending, and we regret that the prospects now seem to indicate that it will be impossible for us to attend.

THE impeachment case of Mayor Kallach, of San Francisco, has been dismissed by the Supreme Court, for want of jurisdiction. Dennis Kearney, Mayor of Kallach's right hand knave, was also released from prison and set free on the same day, under a writ of habeas corpus, tried before the Supreme Court. Communists stock will now go up in the public market.

OUR people will remember the eloquent, earnest, manly speech and conduct of Hon. Thos. L. Jones, when here in 1879 as a candidate for Governor. He captivated all who heard him, and we now suggest that the Democrats of this county instruct for him as one of the electors for the State at large. No better selection could be made.

AS OUR Convention meets next Saturday, it will be proper to suggest that we are for the old ticket, and believe it to be the best to nominate that ticket, and are for carrying out that programme. We are for the nomination of Tilden, and then for tendering the nomination for Vice-President to Hendricks, and if he fails to accept, then make the best selection for the second place possible, roll up our sleeves, go to work and elect them, and inaugurate them.

THE friends of Judge A. T. Craycroft, of Owensboro, are urging his name as a suitable person for Democratic Elector for the Second Kentucky district. We have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with the Judge, and believe it would be hard to secure a better man for the place. If commissioned for the work he will make an active canvass of the district, and his speeches will have the true Democratic ring, and will be earnest and eloquent. We trust that he may receive the endorsement for this honorable position by the Democrats of this, his neighbor county, in the mass meeting here next Saturday.

THE Court of Inquiry have decided that colored agent Whittaker is a fraud, that he slit his own ears, wrote the note of warning to himself, tied himself and feigned unconsciousness when found. This knocks all the capital the bloody-shirt shirkers expected to make out of in the Presidential campaign.

By one of those unaccountable causes, our foreman made a mistake in the date of this issue, and in changing from May he went back to April instead of forward to June. This is the first mistake of the kind he has made since engaged in this office, a period of fifteen months, and our readers will readily excuse this one.

THE grand political gathering in Chicago is one of the largest of the kind ever assembled on this continent, and excitement runs high. If Grant is not beaten out of some of his votes, he will be nominated without doubt, but the combined efforts of the followers of the other aspirants, may win some of Grant's supporters from him and thus defeat him. The convention begins its work to-day, and we will soon know the result.

THE Owensboro Messenger and Examiner, referring to the failure of Democratic committees to discharge their duty, makes the following sensible suggestions:

"Let us have thorough organization all along the line, and valiant and unswerving service from every man in the ranks. The untimely one-gallop Democracy of Kentucky wear their political garments carelessly, sometimes because they imagine there is no danger of taking cold in a Democratic climate like this. But the coming season is certain to be a hot one, and the Democrats should be wrapped closely about us, for there is danger of a political Northern that may make us regret that we were caught with our coats off. All we need is care, caution, wise counsel and good work to insure us victory. Let Kentucky Democrats be sure that they contribute their share of all these to the cause, and for a moment forget that their exertions are necessary not only to save their own franchises in the future, but to give present aid and comfort to their co-workers in other States."

THE Democratic Executive Committee have proven themselves to be a failure, and we hope they will resign and let the Convention on the 17th of June select a new one. In the first place they have called the State Convention to meet in the Eastern part of the State, inconvenient to be reached, and will require about a day longer to go and come for a larger number of the counties than it would if called to meet near a central point, and then they have fixed the day for holding county conventions on the day set apart by law for electing school trustees, and thousands of voters will thus be deprived of attending either their county convention or election of school trustees. And again, the convention is called so short a time before the meeting of the National Convention that the delegates elected, unless in attendance at the State Convention, will hardly have time to receive notice and get to the National Convention, and if present will not have time to return home to the extreme parts of the State and then get to the National Convention. If they had tried they could not have made things more inconvenient, and we had better try a new committee.

Call for a Democratic Convention.

The Democratic State Executive Committee designate the 5th of June, at the Court-House in Hartford, for the Democrats in Ohio county to assemble in mass meeting to take action in relation to a Democratic nomination for President. Come by hundreds. Let's renew our faith and repledge our vows to our country. The advancement of its prosperity, the equality of the States and the citizens, through which can best be done by the election of our nominees. We shall look for a great outpouring of the Democracy, and trust we shall not be disappointed. We want to see thousands.

E. DUDLEY WALKER,
Ch'm. Dem. Ex. Com.

Action of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Fourth Judicial District—A Primary Election Called for July 3d.

Pursuant to a call made by E. L. Jones, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for the 4th Judicial District, of Kentucky, the Committee of said District met in Owensboro on the 8th day of May, 1880, when the following proceedings were had:

It is ordered by the Committee that a primary election, by the Democracy of the 4th Judicial District, be and the same is hereby called to be held in each regular voting precinct in each county of said Judicial District, on Saturday the 3d day of July, 1880, for the purpose of selecting Democratic candidates for the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth Attorney for the said 4th Judicial District.

Resolved, That the chairman of the different county committees cause a poll to be opened in each voting precinct, in said counties, on Saturday, July 3d, 1880, for the purpose of taking the vote of the Democracy in said precincts between the candidates who may submit their claims for said offices to the primary election hereby called.

The respective County Committees are to appoint officers of election for each voting precinct to hold said primary election, who shall open the polls at 8 o'clock, A. M., and keep them open until 6 o'clock, P. M., and receive and record the vote of all legal Democratic voters who may apply to vote.

Resolved, That the polls in the different precincts be compared by the Executive Committees in the respective counties on Monday, July 7th 1880, and that the result be certified under seal by the chairman of the respective county committees and delivered by them to the chairman of the District Executive Committee.

Resolved, That the District Executive Committee meet in Owensboro on the 10th day of July, 1880, and that the results of the vote in each county, as certified, be then compared by said committee and it is hereby ordered that the parties then found to have received the largest number of votes cast in all the counties for the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth Attorney be declared the nominees of the Democracy of the 4th Judicial District for the offices aforesaid, to be voted for at the August election, 1880.
E. L. JONES, Chairman.
GREEN STREETER, Secretary.

In a Pretty Pickle.

The new U. S. Judge, John W. Barr, of Louisville, has decided that a negro under the State laws of Kentucky for any offense cannot be punished if he appeals to the Federal Courts, because of the State law excluding negroes from the jury box; that the amendments to the Constitution of the United States override our State Constitution. The attention of our legislature was called to this, but they failed to enact a law covering the case, and now all a negro murderer, horse thief, or criminal of any kind has to do to get out of the penitentiary, jail or the hands of the State authorities is to apply to the Federal Judge and he will be released and turned loose upon society to repeat his crimes.

There are over six hundred negroes in the penitentiary at Frankfort, any one of whom would be liberated if application was made to Judge Barr. If our Senator's (Capt. S. E. Hill) advice had been adhered to, the recent legislative would have obliterated all this trouble.

The next best thing to do is for Governor Blackburn to call an extra session of the Legislature and pass the necessary law. This we should supplement by rising in our might, from East to West, North to South, and hurl from power the party which goes to such extreme lengths, to try to hold the negro vote solid for their party.

An Open Reply to "An Open Letter."

Wm. Shaver, Esq., Greenville, Ky.

In the last issue of the Muhlenberg Echo I find an open letter from you addressed to me, which contains, as you know, gross misrepresentations. So much so that I deem it proper to make an open reply.

You attempted to create the impression that I offered to remain silent for $500. I never made you any such proposition, and used no language that could be so tortured or stretched as to convey such a meaning.

I received a letter from you on the 22d of May, which I supposed you intended as a private letter, and in my exhortation of you in last week's paper I so treated it, making no extract whatever from it. I answered you on the 24th, and supposed of course my reply would be treated the same way, but no, you refer to it in such a way as to do me great injustice, and make public property of it. You thus let the bars down, and I am relieved from any obligation to treat your letter as private, and will refer to it and make extracts from it in this reply.

In my reply, I said in substance, that if I had known your communication to the Herald was untrue, I would not have published it for $500, and considered that its publication had damaged the paper seriously, by weakening the confidence of the public in it as a reliable newspaper.

I also stated that I would not have had the fabrication copied in the Louisville Commercial, and its notice thereof after finding out it was false, for $50, and supposed you would not care "to dance up" with these amounts, although you had proposed "to stand responsible." This is as near as I offered to remain silent for a consideration, and I am willing for a just public to decide the matter.

So far from intending to make any sort of proposition to remain silent, you know that you brought all the influence to bear you could get me to remain silent, but I refused any overtures or entreaties from you, or any one for you, determined, that as you had imposed upon me in a public manner and made me the tool to place Wickliffe and McCown before the public in an unenviable light, so in the same manner should you be exposed for your unmanly act. Further than this, I intended, as a matter of future protection to myself and the paper, to so publicly expose your imposition upon me, that no other chap seeking public notoriety as a "Boss Lion" would care to undertake to pass a self off on me.

I did offer, in response to a letter written in your behalf, to modify my article and simply explain, if you would get a joint letter from Wickliffe and McCown requesting me to do so, but this you did not do.

You say you can buy an Editor for $500. How do you know? Have you been pricing your home Editor? I trust not, and do not believe Urey would so underestimate his own value.

You say "The only additional apology I have to offer is, that the canard was sent to you because I believed that the paper in whose columns appeared the 'Anderson Bazaar Scandal' was the only sheet published in Kentucky in which my article should be inserted." Now you thought that was a scold-lager that would completely demolish me, but oh, how sadly mistaken! What a scold-lager for your own act!

There are 140 papers besides the Herald published in this State and here you say your canard was too mean, too vile, too slanderous, too outrageous to be inserted in a single one of them. You say this yourself and hence you mean your own act as severely as I did and I agree with you in toto, and go one better and say it was too infamous to appear in any paper published in this State or out of it so far as that is concerned.

As to the so-called "Anderson Bazaar Scandal," referred to, it personated one, slandered no one, accused no particular individual of any particular wrong, was an ingeniously written advertisement, canard, the like of which are appearing from time to time in all the papers in this whole country, had its desired effect, viz., attracting attention to the business of the advertiser, harmed no one and we have no apology to offer for publishing it.

Your puny effort at a pun by using that old thread-bare weekly, for weekly, little paper, &c., is not worthy of notice. We are welcome to all the capital you can thus make.

You deny having malice, envy, ill will, or any but the kindest feelings for McCown and Wickliffe, and say that the intimation to that effect is a more damnable lie than the one you managed to get published in the Herald.

This is your statement as published. Now let's compare it with other statements made by you and see how they harmonize.

In your letter to me three days after the canard was published and after you knew your dear bosom friends, McCown and Wickliffe, were seriously mortified over the matter, you used the following language: "Since I have read your letters to Messrs. Wickliffe and McCown I feel very much mortified and on their account, but yours." After you had three days to deliberate upon the consequences of what you and they claimed for you, was a thoughtful act and had learned that they were wounded in feelings over it, you had the cheek to say that you were not mortified on their account, that you did not care a cent for having been the cause of publishing to the world, that one was a fugitive felon, and the other a coward, who would flee and leave his companion to be shot to death.

In the same letter you say, "I am of the impression that Wickliffe is rather elevating his posterior extremities because he is accused of showing cowardice." Had I cause to publish him a coward, I would do so and could establish it as a fact.

This is the way you talk of those you have none but the kindest feelings for. Well all I have to say is, "Lord, save me from such a friend." The court of public opinion, upon your own evidence, will render a verdict that you were actuated by some sort of unkind feeling toward one or the other or both of them and procured the publication of the libel to satisfy your spleen. If you were not influenced by some improper motive why did you do it? Did you think it would better their condition? Did you expect it to give you a clearer insight into legal matters? Did you think that your town and community would be improved by having the reputation of being populated by blood-thirsty demons who cared nothing for the taking of the life of a fellow mortal? Did you make it profitable to yourself? Did it elevate you morally or mentally the estimation of your people? McCown and Wickliffe are such good friends and so dear to you, why did you not select some other parties and have the offense other than murder? If you were not actuated by evil influences and feelings, just inform the public why you did it at all. This much is clear—you were not actuated by any pure, honest, manly, upright, dignified, christian motive and hence your account must have been prompted by some influence opposite to these.

Inversely considered contemplating sending 500 extras or saying you, but I didn't care if you thought so, I supposed it would worry you a little.

An effort has been made to induce me to believe that all Greenville, with one accord, regard your publication in the Herald as an innocent piece of amusement and enjoyed it as a huge joke. If the citizens of Greenville and Muhlenberg county appreciate their county being published as a scene of bloody carnage, one of their trusted officials as an assassin, &c., they are not the kind of people we have always given them credit for being. We do not believe the statements made. We believe the good people of the town and county deprecate the idea of such a reputation given them as has been by the publication of your unprofitable falsehood.

The Police Judge, of your town, wrote a letter over his own signature to the Louisville Commercial, as follows:

SOMEbody LIES.

About that Fight of Lawyers in Greenville.

GREENVILLE, KY., May 24.

Editor Commercial:

I noticed a piece published in your paper of the 21st headed "A terrible fight between lawyers," at this place. Please allow me to make the following correction in regard to the article copied from the Hartford Herald, for the benefit of the young gentlemen named in the article, and for the good of the public.

The article as published is false, every word of it. Mr. W. B. McCown is a young attorney-at-law and County Attorney. He is a nice clever gentleman, of good moral and social habits, well liked by all who know him. He is the man who now stands before the people who have seen the article published, as a would be murderer and a fugitive from justice, all of which is a slander and a reproach upon the young gentleman of the darkest type. Mr. McCown never next door to me, and I know that there never has been a cross word passed between Mr. Allison and Mr. McCown, and there is no reason why such a damnable report should have been started; and while there can be no reason for such reports, it is an evident fact that Mr. Barrett, the editor of the Herald, is clear of any blame attached thereto, from the fact that the letter appeared to have been written in good faith, and by a young attorney of this place, who, I must frankly say, has more pluck than brains.

Yours truly,

T. J. TINSLEY.

One of your most prominent lawyers wrote to me concerning it, and characterized your act as almost unparalleled, disgraceful and disreputable. Another said your conduct was wholly wrong.

Now it seems that some other besides myself denounce your act. The highest official of your town, himself not mixed up or referred to in the matter, denounces you as severely as I, whom you so outrageously imposed upon, did.

Disinterested people say you deserved just such a scolding as you got, and that you did not and could not get a lick anise.

The Bowling Green Intelligencer, one of the first papers of the State, says: "The Hartford Herald gives Attorney Wm. Shaver, of Greenville, a deserved castigation for imposing upon it a canard about a shooting between Allison and Wickliffe, members of the same bar."

In conclusion I will say, that I will not suffer such an imposition from any one without rebuking the imposer in the most public manner possible.

Editing and publishing the Herald is my business, source of revenue, means of feeding and clothing myself and family and paying my debts, and in proportion as it enjoys the confidence of the public as an influential reliable newspaper do I prosper, and vice versa, and the man who conceals deceit lies and deceptively procures their insertion in its columns, thus injuring its confidence as a substantial newspaper, is whether he so intends it or not, a thief. He steals the food and raiment from himself and family, and the money due my creditors, and I intend to so far as I can, make any one thus offending feel as though he had stirred up a hornet's nest, been struck by a tornado, is standing on the crater of a volcano, is in the track of an avalanche, been "chewed" up by an alligator, tramped on by an elephant, blown up by a steamboat disaster, run over by a train of cars, struck by lightning and wish for an earthquake to open a crevasse and swallow him up so that he will never be heard of again.

I have done for good, and will now dismiss the matter with this piece of advice. Let this be your last effort of this kind. As an admirer or imitator of Gulliver, Sindbad, Munchausen, Mulhatten or Brizendine, just claim that you have graduated and quit. If you do not a dark future awaits you. If you will prove yourself a failure. If you continue in this course, the last ray of hope that lights up the future will soon fade from view, and there will be none so poor or lowly as to do you reverence.

The acid of envy will gnaw at your vitals. The poison of deceit and falsehood will sap your life-blood and you will go down to an early grave, unwept, unloved and unmissed. And we will be called upon to write your epitaph, and will use the following appropriate lines:

"Shame and dishonor sit
By his grave ever,
Blessings shall hallow it
Never, no, never!"

Tha, in,
JOHN P. BARRETT.

"ADVANCE AND RETREAT" is the title of the posthumous book of General J. B. Hood, whose modest personal bravery was the admiration of every one during the late war. It is a narrative of his personal experiences in the Armies of the United States and Confederate States. It is very handsomely printed, octavo size, containing 399 pages, with a handsome lithographic portrait in full military costume, and fine line engravings of the warrior in citizen dress. Both are excellent likenesses. The book also has four lithographic maps of battle fields. The price of the book, handsomely bound in gray English cloth, is a valuable premium. We give a fine 18 view of the Capitol building, the most magnificent structure in America, also splendid views of the White House, Treasury building, Smithsonian Institute, Patent Office, St. Vernon, and other points of interest. Miss Grace Thompson, music teacher in South Carrollton Institute, accompanied by Mr. Jos. H. Anderson, was in town Saturday and Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Anderson.

Our office was brightened last Saturday evening by a visit from Misses Grace Thompson and Annie Anderson, and Mrs. Joe C. Miller. We assure the ladies that their call was appreciated.

Mr. C. J. Yager, for about four years an attaché of this office, resigned his position last week. Wherever he may go or whatever reception he may engage in, may success attend him.

Mrs. Dr. Armend, Miss Annie Harris and Miss Mattie Coats, who spent several days last week visiting relatives and friends in Hartford and vicinity, returned to their homes in Davies county last Friday.

Mrs. H. D. Taylor and daughter left last week for Shelbyville, to attend the commencement exercises of Science Hill. They will be accompanied home by Miss Mary Taylor, her granddaughter, who will graduate at that time.

W. E. McLaughlin, Esq., representing the Ohio Falls Music Company, Louisville, is in town, the guest of the Hartford House. He has samples of instruments, embracing organs, phonographs, gramophones, violins, guitars, &c.

Mrs. Ada Barnett and Miss Laura Brown, who have just returned from a five week's visit to the family of Herbert Wallace, near Big Spring, called on us Monday. They brought us a lot of nice specimens of quartz and other minerals and stones, which we have added to our cabinet of curiosities.

—New lawns at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Five cent calico, at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Come to Democratic Mass Convention next Saturday.

—A fine assortment of boys cotton socks at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Samuel James, of Centerville moved last Wednesday to Point Pleasant, this county.

—Read notice of Corporation of the Ohio County White Sulphur Springs Company.

—The handsomest 15c hose for misses that you have seen this season are just received at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Alexander Nicholson, living in Bartlett's precinct, aged about 100 years, died last Sunday. Mr. Nicholson was a soldier of the war of 1812.

—At the recent session of the Circuit Court, Mr. A. L. Morton resigned as Trustee of the Jury Fund, and Capt. S. K. Cox was appointed instead.

—Miss Grace Thompson, the famous pianist from Prof. Alexander's school, came eighteen miles to see Anderson's Bazaar, and says she was well paid for her trip.

—Mr. Sam'l A. Williams, of McHenry, has sold his stock of dry goods, &c., to the McHenry Coal Company and will probably locate in Hartford.

—Go as the tide of custom goes. If you do, you will go to R. P. Rowe & Bro.'s for dry goods, clothing, hats, boots and shoes, notions, &c.

—Mr. J. F. Yager has moved to Owensboro and opened a livery stable in the upper part of the city. He desires the patronage of the public. 20-1f.

—Those that have been owing us for some ten or twelve months, may not be surprised if they find their accounts and notes in the hands of an officer. ROGERS & KING, 21-3f.

—You can get a very fair article of calico at Anderson's Bazaar for 10c a yard.

—If you want a good rig, call on Henry Field. If you want your horse fed, do the same thing.

—The good old times have come again, and you can buy calico at 5c a yard at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Remember you can buy pure Hines' whisky at 50 cents per quart, at Rogers & King's, Buford, Ky. 21-2f.

—L. F. Woerner, in addition to his boot and shoe shop, has added a regular shoe store.

—There is a fatality among the cats of Hartford, nearly all of them having sickened and died in the last week or so.

—A Democratic Mass Meeting will be held in Hartford on next Saturday to select delegates to the State Convention at Lexington, on June the 17th.

—When you come to town to buy goods, do not make your purchase until you visit R. P. Rowe & Bro.'s dry goods store, at Hartford & N. E. St. 21-2f.

—James O'Connor will be hung at Carmi, Illinois, on Friday next, for the murder of the marshal of that place. Mr. O'Connor was once a citizen of this place.

—Jno. W. Taylor, of Poor Neck, set out a trout last Saturday evening and expected a blue cat fish, but to his astonishment, instead he caught a blue crane.

—The commencement exercises of the Kentucky Military Institute will be held Thursday, June 3rd, (to-morrow). Thanks to Col. R. J. Allen, Sup't., for an invitation to attend.

—Dr. Coleman will preach at Buford next Saturday and Sunday at 11 o'clock. Subject for Sunday, "Credibility of the Miracles of Christ." The public are respectfully invited to attend.

—George Hoover, Esq., has moved from his old home near Beda and located in Buford. He is building a flour and grist mill at that place, which he expects to complete in time for fall grain.

—Messrs. Jesse Potter and W. H. Maunz left yesterday morning for Evansville, where they will purchase a steam portable saw mill. They will make the first setting of the mill near Rosine.

—WANTED—Every person attending the Mass Convention next Saturday, or County Court Monday, who need anything in the boot and shoe line, to call on A. C. Etzel, at the sign of the red boot.

—WANTED—Every person coming to Owensboro, who has a horse to feed, to come to J. F. Yager's stable and learn something new. Cox's old stand, one square above Hartford road, between Main and Third streets.

—MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's father, Sam'l L. Baird, May the 27th, 1880, by Rev. G. J. Bean, Mr. Benjamin Boly and Miss Bettie V. Baird. The parties have our best wishes for a long and happy life.

—FOR SALE—A HOUSE and LOT.

—Mr. J. F. Yager, desiring to move to Owensboro, wishes to sell his HOUSE and LOT in Hartford. For further particulars, apply to C. J. YAGER, 15-1f.

—James H. Ambrose will have a barbecue at Hardin Ashley's, on Saturday, June 26th. A good dinner, good music, arrangements for dancing, public speaking and refreshment stands and embraced in the programme he had printed by us.

—Messrs. A. S. Aull and G. A. Hines will give a barbecue at Hines' Mill on Saturday, June 19, 1880. The candidates for county offices are invited to attend. A good time is expected generally. Come and share the pleasure and enjoyment.

—Our colored friends are to have a picnic at the fair grounds near here on Saturday, June 12th, and an exhibition at night. The bills, printed at this office, presents an arrangement that insures a pleasant and profitable day for those attending.

—BORN—To Mrs. Mary Townsend Harding, wife of Enoch Harding, Mansfield, Texas, May 12th, 1880, a daughter, Mabel Hoke. We congratulate the parents upon this addition to their family and trust she may live to be a pride and solace to them.

—Aunt Caroline Phelps, while riding in a spring wagon near Beaver Dam, on last Sunday week, was thrown from the same and broke her collar-bone. Catherine Larkins was also thrown out and lacerated up. Aunt Caroline is improving as fast as could be expected.

—The District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will be held at Hartford, commencing June 17th and continue the balance of the week. We hope the citizens of town will make ample preparations for the accommodation of the ministers and visitors.

—Thousands of soldiers and heirs are entitled to pensions with payment from date of discharge or death, if applied for before July 1, 1881. Would, accidental injury or disease entitle to a pension. Bounty and back pay collected. Increase of pension secured. This firm established in 1868. Address, enclosing stamp, Edson Bros., U.S. Claim Attorneys, 711 G. Street, Washington, D. C. 10-1f.

—Mr. E. S. Edgerton respectfully informs the citizens of Hartford and vicinity, that he intends to remain at this place and carry on the painting business in all its branches, house, sign and carriage work, graining, paper hanging, &c., done in the latest style. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction. All favors in his line will be thankfully received, and promptly attended to. 42-1f. E. S. EDGERTON.

The recent rains have infused new life into the farmers throughout the county, and happy smiles take the place of long, sad faces.

—Tom, Bender, of color, an old and honorable citizen, living in the vicinity of Beaver Dam, died on Monday morning last.

—Thos. S. Bennett, living near the McLean county line, presented us a piece of hickory wood containing a limb with both ends of the same growing in the wood.

—A black Shepherd pup, about half grown, while about the neck. Any one finding said Shepherd and delivering him to me will be rewarded for his trouble. Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN, 21-1f.

—A daughter of Daniel Kelley, near Spring Lick, Grayson county, was seriously injured by an electric current, last Saturday. She was so shocked by the lightning as to seriously impair her mind.

—G. T. Bunch, the new merchant at Horse Branch, will at that place on Saturday, June 19th, give a grand barbecue and picnic. A nice land of music will be engaged, and the day will not doubt be pleasantly spent.

—If those persons owing me have stood out an injunction vs. what they owe me, they will please have notice served so that I can take steps to have same dissolved, and force payment. V. P. ADDINGTON.

—All persons indebted to Griffin & Edson for services of Old Mack for last year, are hereby notified that to save cost they must come forward and settle the same. The money is now due and must be paid. 23-3f.

—Prof. W. E. McLaughlin, of the Ohio Falls Music Company, will introduce the popular George Woods organ at the M. E. Church on next Friday night. The choir, members of the church, and all others are invited to attend.

—Miss Alcinda Leizure, daughter of John T. Leizure, of Centerville, died last Monday night, of typhoid. Deceased was just blooming into womanhood, being sixteen years old. She was interred in the Warden graveyard yesterday evening.

—Lucius P. Little, candidate for Circuit Judge, Maj. Joe Hayercraft, Maj. Baker Boyd and Messrs. J. Allen Dean and Joe Noe, candidates for Commonwealth's Attorney, addressed the citizens of Buford last Thursday, setting forth their respective claims to these offices. They are all clever, nice gentlemen, and made good speeches.

—We understand that the suit of the National School Furniture Company vs. H. B. Taylor did not and will not settle all the cases against Trustees in this county. Some parties in Louisville have orders which they discounted, and they have instituted suit in other places to test their cases. They have no connection with the National School Furniture Company.

—Prof. Edgerton avows his intention to teach a class in vocal music as soon as school closes. Children and those who cannot attend at night will be taught in the afternoon. A class for adults will also be taught at night. Due notice will be given of the time to organize. The Professor also expects to put the Cantata of Belshezar in rehearsal in a few days.

—Mr. W. H. Murrell has recently been appointed agent for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Milwaukee, Wis. This is the best company now doing business in the State, and we trust our readers who are thinking of insurance will investigate the matter. If they do they will give their applications to Mr. Murrell for policies in this company.

—The rain last Thursday and Friday afforded another opportunity for farmers to set tobacco. The idea that would not be over a third of a crop planted in this county has proven to be a mistake. Already a considerable amount has been set, and if there should be seasons from now until about the 20th of June, we doubt not that at least two-thirds of a crop will be planted.

—C. F. Kennedy and S. C. Dewese will have a barbecue at Caneyville on Saturday, June 19th, and promise a good dinner, good music, excellent speaking, a fine display of oratory, and a lecture from the renowned adventurer, Jo. Mulhatten, B. L., who will give a full history of the manner in which he became a fond of the program, printed at this office, presents attractions that insure a gala-day.

—From Judge A. B. Baird, our efficient school commissioner, we learn that the recent census returns to him, of the children in Ohio county, within the proper age to attend the public schools, foots up as follows:

Whites, 6,720

Whites in 79, 6,286

Increase over 79, 434

Blacks, 42

Increase over 79, 42

Total increase over 79, 476

Total number of scholars, 7,246

The increase in number of scholars has been much greater than the increase in taxable property and if we go on in this way, increasing the children and decreasing, or at least, not materially increasing our wealth, our public school money will soon be a very poor dependence for educating the youth in the State.

Another Curiosity.

Mr. Samuel Z. Austin left with us last Friday a chicken with three distinct feet and legs. It was hatched on its premises the Monday before, and lived until Friday morning. Call and see it as we have it preserved in alcohol. 10-1f.

A Nice Lot of Specimens.

HARDIN COUNTY, KY.

We present our compliments to you, and hope you will accept a few specimens from our county. These stones were gathered from Spring Hill, which is on our father's farm.

From two Sisters.

LUCY AND SARAH WALLACE.

The young ladies have our thanks.

Enumerators for Ohio County.

The following enumerators have been appointed and confirmed for Ohio county:

Election of School Trustees.

Next Saturday, June 5th, is the day fixed by law for the election of School Trustees for the Common School Districts in this State. If a district is to vote on the question of a local tax to supplement the State fund, then the polls must be kept open from 9 o'clock A. M. to 5 o'clock P. M. If the election is held for the election of Trustees only, then the law requires the polls to open at 1 and close at 6 o'clock P. M.

Turn out and elect your best men, those most liberal and progressive, and thus secure the best teacher and the best school possible.

Death of George A. Platt.

Mr. Geo. A. Platt, who for some time past has been afflicted with bronchial trouble, died very suddenly and unexpectedly last Monday morning. Mr. Platt was thought to be improving up to six weeks or two months ago, but since that time had been gradually growing worse, and for about three or four days before his death had been confined to his room, but was not thought to be in apparent danger. His wife gave him a drink of water about 2 o'clock, and upon awaking about 4 o'clock found him dead. This has passed from earth a noble generous young man—one belkied by all who knew him. He leaves a young and devoted wife—a wife he idolized, a brother, who lives in Missouri, four sisters, three of whom live in Louisville. His remains were interred yesterday evening in the cemetery at this place. His wife and relatives have our deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

Important to Census Enumerators.

We will give the Census Enumerator who will, during the month of June, get us the largest number of subscribers to the HERALD, a present of an elegant sewing machine, worth not less than $55. No one competing can secure the prize with a less number than 20 subscribers, and the cash must accompany their list of names. If the Enumerator takes the subscribers on credit he must pay it himself. The subscribers will also get choice of our premium books, "Treatise on the Horse" and "Home Guide." Here is a chance for a new premium without losing any time or money.

Louisville Markets.

[Reported by C. R. Gregory & Co., for the week ending May 30.]

CATTLE.—Good to extra shipping cattle 4 to 4½, good to extra butcher cattle 4 to 4½, fair butcher, 3½ to 3¾, stockers and feeders, 2½ to 3, bulls 2½ to 3, common to medium 2½ to 2¾, thin, common steers, cows, &c. 1½ to 2.

HOGS.—Choice butcher 4 to 4½, fair to good packing 3½ to 4, fair to good light shipping 3½ to 4.

SHEEP.—Extra shipping 3½ to 3¾, fair to good butcher 3 to 3½, common 1½ to 2½.

LAMBS.—Good to extra shipping 4½ to 5, common to medium 4 to 4½.

The price for all grades of live stock seems to be tending to lower prices. As the season advances grass cattle will be coming, and shippers should be on their guard about high priced stock.

TOBACCO.

D. K. Mason & Co., proprietors of the People's Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, report as follows:

The lower grades of tobacco have declined since the recent planting season, but goods of the better grade remain firm and in fair demand, with receipts and sales larger than past week.

Receipts for week 880 hds.

Sales for week 1,291 hds.

Sales for month 5,061 hds.

Sales for year 28,284 hds.

Owensboro Tobacco Market.

Messrs. Clark & Venable, proprietors of the Exchange Tobacco Warehouse, sold on the 27th ult., six hds. Davies county tobacco as follows:

2 hds. leaf at $7.00 $7.25, 2 hds. leaf, $4.90 $5.30, 2 hds. trash $2.50 $3.30.

They report the market quite active and firm, and prices advanced on all grades.

Pie-Nie.

A grand picnic will be given on the Hartford and Paradise road, near Absalom Chapman's, Saturday, June the 5th, 1880. Refreshments of all kinds, music and dancing will be on the ground for all wishing to participate. There will be one of the best string bands from the Owensboro Junction, in the county. Come one and come all, and enjoy yourselves. The candidates for the different offices are invited, and are expected to attend. The old and young will be there to hear them speak.

20-3f. D. W. WAKELAND & Co.

Administrators' Sale.

On Saturday, June 12th, 1880, at the late residence of Franklin Wallace, will be sold a lot of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, two wagons, household and kitchen furniture.

22-2f. C. T. WALLACE, Adm'r.

Money Made.

Is money saved. Insure your life in the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, and have something for your wife and children when you are gone. W. H. MURRELL, Agt., Beaver Dam, Ky. 22-2f.

Donation.

The undersigned would respectfully ask the citizens of Hartford and vicinity for a small donation for the purpose of buying a new grindstone. Special invitation is extended to the carpenters and mechanics of Hartford.

DAN F. TRACY.

Public Speaking.

Lucius P. Little, Democratic candidate for Circuit Judge, and Maj. Baker Boyd, Maj. Joe Hayercraft, and Messrs. J. A. Dean and Joe Noe, Democratic candidates for Commonwealth's Attorney will address the citizens of Ohio county at the following times and places:

Equality church, Thursday June 3, 10 o'clock.

Report, Friday June 4, 10 o'clock.

Beaver Dam, Saturday June 5, 10 o'clock.

Cromwell, Tuesday June 8, 10 o'clock.

Rosine, Wednesday June 9, 10 o'clock.

Sulphur Springs, Thursday June 10, 10 o'clock.

Mt. Elma, Friday June 11, 10 o'clock.

Bartlett's school house, Sat. June 12. The candidates for county offices are invited to attend these appointments. Speaking to begin at 2 o'clock.

Farm for Sale.

I wish to sell 200 acres of the tract of land on which I live, 1 mile from Hartford, on the road to Calhoun. The part I wish to sell embraces up land, bottom land, cleared land and wood-land. The cleared land is under good fence and embraces some fine, well set meadows, and is a first class stock farm. Those wishing to examine the place will call on me on the premises, and I will take pleasure in showing it to them.

For price or terms of payment, call on A. B. Baird, Hartford, who is hereby authorized to sell and arrange terms of payment. OREO BENNETT, Sr. May 31, 1880. 22-4f.

Wool Carding.

The public are hereby informed that our carding machine has been put in operation, and in every respect, by an experienced carder, and we are now prepared to do carding with dispatch and in good order. We have secured the services of a first-class carder, and will card wool for seven cents per pound, plain, and seven and a-half per pound, mixed, or one-fifth toll. We intend to keep up with our work. So bring on your wool and take your rolls back with you the same day. We have Cate's goods for sale for cash or in exchange for wool.

Thankful for past patronage. We solicit a continuance of the same.

Grinding done every day in the week except Sunday.

Respectfully, 19-1f. JKO. R. & WM. PHIPPS.
